Wayne A. Barr, D.M.A., Director

The Tuskegee Choir is an organization steeped in more than a century of pride and the richest of choral traditions. Since its inception, the Tuskegee Choir has served as an artistic model while carving its place in American history. The school choir was is Director of Choral Activities at Tuskegee University. He earned degrees in church music and choral conducting from Westminster Choir College (B.M.), Southern Methodist University (M.M., M.S.M.), and The University of Michigan (D.M.A.). He has served as organist and choir director at churches in Alabama, Michigan, New Jersey and Texas.

Under Mr. Barr's direction, the Tuskegee Choir has toured the Midwestern and East Coast regions of the United States, and the San Francisco Bay Area. The Choir has also presented numerous concerts throughout the Southeast.

As an organ recitalist, Mr. Barr has twice been a featured organist at the Colour of Music Festival in Charleston, South Carolina. He is also a music workshop clinician. Mr. Barr is co-director of the Italian Opera Study Abroad Program, which offers students of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) a four-week study of Italian opera with a renowned coach in Italy. As a regional conductor for the 105 Voices of History, a choir made up of student representatives of the 105 HBCUs as defined by the White House Initiative, he has prepared students and served as organ accompanist for the 2008 and 2009 Kennedy Center performances of the 105 Choir. He served as a national conductor for the 2010 Kennedy Center performance. In February 2015, Barr presented concerts with a Bolivian choir and American soloists in La Paz and Cochabamba, Bolivia under the auspices of the U. S. Embassy in Bolivia.

Dr. Barr is a member of the American Choral Directors Association and the American Guild of Organists. He is also actively involved in the Tuskegee community through the Optimist Club, an organization that supports children and youth, and through the Tuskegee Repertory Theatre.

serves as the newly appointed Choral Accompanist for the Choral Department of Tuskegee University. She is a certified music educator, choral conductor, vocalist and accomplished pianist. Her degrees include a Master of Education in Music Education from Alabama State University, and a Bachelor of Arts in piano performance from Huntington College.

For more than 20 years, Mrs. Shuford has provided music education to students in the Montgomery Public School System. She has spent the past 14 1/2 years as the choral director of the ChoraLees of Robert E. Lee High School. Her extensive work at Robert E. Lee High School brought regional visibility and acclaim for her innovative musical creation "The Saturday Night Fish Fry", among other notable productions throughout the Montgomery area.

As an ordained elder, Mrs. Shuford has also served as the minister of music at the Mount Zion A.M.E. Zion Church in Montgomery. During her tenure, she has presented major music works, cantatas, and original musical productions with intricate orchestration, choreography and dramatic presentations.

Mrs. Shuford is a member of the National Association for Music Education.
